Parent Focus Group

Hosted by

The Arc of Macomb County

Michigan Alliance for Families information, support, and education

In order to provide services that address the unique needs of families coping with challenges related to their child's health, education, recreation, and overall well-being, The Arc of Macomb County and Michigan Alliance for Families invite parents of special needs children, aged infant to 26 years old, to participate in a parent focus group.

Please join us and share your parenting challenges and successes, helping us to shape programs that provide the content and tools you need to navigate the path of a special needs family.
