Good Note:

Susie was pacing the kitchen, trying to open cupboards. Directed her to picture cards and asked what she wanted. Susie pulled on the cupboard. She indicated thirsty with a gesture. I reminded her of the picture cards and offered choices of drinks. Throughout the shift, Susie was reminded to use cards to indicate her needs or wants. She participated about 50% of the time.

Bad Note:

Susie was upset. I got her a glass of water. We did many things.
